

Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy

A Panel Discussion

Professional Autonomy: Discretion and Responsibility in K-12 Public Education

Speakers

Sue Ferguson, Senior Labour Relations Consultant,
British Columbia Public School Employers (BCPSE)

Charlie Naylor, Senior Researcher,
British Columbia Teachers Federation (BCTF)

Pam Essex, Elementary School Principal,
Richmond School District, British Columbia

Brigitte Patenaude, Teacher,
Prince of Wales Secondary School, Vancouver School District

BCPSE Brief entitled, Professional Autonomy: Discretion and Responsibility in K-12 Public Education available at: <http://www.bcpsea.bc.ca/resources/manuals-and-reports.aspx>

Thursday, January 12th, 12:30 - 2:00 p.m.
SCARFE Room 310

(light refreshments will be served)