

Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy
February 5, 2016

The Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy has opportunity for part-time Sessional appointments. We are accepting applications for the following courses:

Agriculture in the Curriculum EDCP 329 (Lecture) in Abbotsford, B.C.

Summer Term 2 (July 18-22, 2016)
Monday to Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

EDCP 329 focuses on agriculture in the curriculum. This is a one-week summer institute with pre- and post-assignments offered in Abbotsford in partnership with British Columbia Agriculture in the Classroom Foundation. Candidates must have a recognized Master's degree, and at least 5 years of teaching in a school setting. The successful candidate should have a strong background in teaching about agriculture, food production and environmental issues at all school levels, experience in teaching adults, practical knowledge and experience in farming, agriculture, and the agri-food industry, an interest in an interest in current research in education and food production, and a willingness to work in partnership with BC AITC.

UBC hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity and diversity within its community. We especially welcome applications from members of visible minority groups, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and others with the skills and knowledge to engage productively with diverse communities. We encourage all qualified persons to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current resume or CV are submitted to
