

Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy
February 16, 2016

The Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy has opportunity for part-time Sessional appointments. We are accepting applications for the following courses:

Special Topics in Home Economics Education: Ecology of food studies EDCP 495B/96A (Lecture) in Prince George, B.C.

Summer Term 2 (July 4 - 8, 2016)
Monday to Friday 8:00 a.m. to 4:00 p.m.

EDCP 495B focuses on the ecology of food studies. This is a one-week summer institute with pre- and post-assignments offered in Kelowna from July 4 – 8, 2016 to home economics diploma (post B. Ed.) and other students. Candidates must have a recognized Master's degree, and at least 5 years of teaching foods and nutrition in a school setting. The successful candidate should have a strong background in teaching foods and nutrition at the secondary level, experience in teaching adults, an interest in research and knowledge and experience in environmental, ecological and practical issues in food studies.

UBC hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity and diversity within its community. We especially welcome applications from members of visible minority groups, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and others with the skills and knowledge to engage productively with diverse communities. We encourage all qualified persons to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current resume or CV are submitted to
