Applicants must have a minimum of a recognized master's degree preferably in science education, recent teaching experience with secondary/high school learners, and academic expertise in the undergraduate course identified above. They should be familiar with the new BC curriculum and have experience with the BC K–12 school system's structure and services and with the various stakeholder groups, and with authorities involved in the provision of education in British Columbia. Duties include teaching, holding regular office hours, marking assignments, reporting grades, attending subject area meetings as well as follow-up appointments, where applicable.

UBC hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity and diversity within its community. We especially welcome applications from members of visible minority groups, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and others with the skills and knowledge to engage productively with diverse communities. We encourage all qualified persons to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current resume or CV are submitted to
