

Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy
June 12, 2018

The Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy has opportunity for a part-time Sessional appointment. We are accepting applications for the following course:

EDCP 492 63C (Distance Education)

Special Study in Home Economics: Textile Studies

Location: Vancouver

Term 2 (Jan 02, 2019 to Apr 04, 2019)

Applicants must have a minimum of a recognized master's degree preferably in Home Economics education, recent teaching experience with learners in the relevant age group, and academic expertise in the undergraduate course identified above. They should be familiar with the new BC curriculum and have experience with the BC K–12 school system's structure and services and with the various stakeholder groups, and with authorities involved in the provision of education in British Columbia. Duties include teaching, holding regular office hours, marking assignments, reporting grades, attending subject area meetings as well as follow-up appointments, where applicable.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current resume or CV are submitted to

Dr. Penney Clark
University of British Columbia
