The Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy has opportunity for part-time Sessional appointment. We are accepting applications for the following course:

General Science - Secondary: Curriculum and Pedagogy

EDCP 467J/301 & 302 (Lecture-Lab)

Location: Vancouver

Term 1 (September 4, 2018 to December 7, 2018)

Mondays	15:00	16:30	Neville Scarfe Room 1207
Thursdays	14:00	15:30	Neville Scarfe Room 1207
Thursdays	14:00	16:30	Neville Scarfe Room 1207

EDCP 467J is a required course for all B.Ed. secondary science students. This general methods course prepares students to teach Grade 8-10 science and involves laboratory and field based work. Applicants must have a minimum of a recognized master's degree in science education or a related discipline, a B.Ed. degree in secondary education and an undergraduate degree in science, recent relevant teaching experience with post secondary BEd and/or BSc students, knowledge of and experience teaching high school learners in the British Columbia school system, and academic expertise in science and science education coursework. Applicants should also have working knowledge of the new BC curriculum, recent experience with the BC K-12 school system's structure and services, and an understanding of the various stakeholder groups and authorities involved in the provision of education in British Columbia. Duties include teaching, holding regular office hours, marking assignments, reporting grades, attending subject area meetings as well as follow-up appointments.

UBC hires on the basis of merit and is committed to employment equity and diversity within its community. We especially welcome applications from members of visible minority groups, women, Aboriginal persons, persons with disabilities, persons of minority sexual orientations and gender identities, and others with the skills and knowledge to engage productively with diverse communities. We encourage all qualified persons to apply; however, Canadian citizens and permanent residents of Canada will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current resume or CV are submitted to
