

Ethical Engagements with Alterity

An EDCP Lecture Series 2013-2014 hosted by

William E. Doll, Jr. | Donna Trueit | William Pinar

September 13	William Pinar, UBC	“Curriculum Studies in China”	12:30- 2:00 pm Scarfe 310
October 4	Hongyu Wang, Oklahoma State University	“Nonviolent Engagements with Difference: Transforming Relational Dynamics in Education”	12:30- 2:00 pm Scarfe 1214
November 8	Cash Ahenakew, UBC, Vanessa Andreotti, University of Oulu (Finland)	“Epistemological Pluralism in Higher Education: Ethical and Epistemological Challenges”	12:30- 2:00 pm Scarfe 310
December 13	Peter Grimmitt, UBC	“The Meaning of Curriculum is a Complicated Conversation: The Purpose of Curriculum is to Render a Complicated World View”	12:30- 2:00 pm Scarfe 1107
January 10	Shafik Dharamsi, UBC Faculty of Medicine	“Ethical International Engagement - We Come in the Name of Helping”	12:30- 2:00 pm Scarfe 1107
February 14	Brian Casemore, George Washington	“The Otherness of Place: Psychoanalysis and Education for Civic Engagement”	12:30- 2:00 pm Scarfe 1107
March 14	Hannah Spector, Pennsylvania State	“Hannah Arendt’s Political Ethics”	12:30- 2:00 pm Scarfe 1107
April 11	William E. Doll, Jr., Louisiana State, UBC	“Some Questions Concerning Ethics”	12:30- 2:00 pm Scarfe 1107

Note: Light lunch will be served at noon in Scarfe 1223. The lecture commences at 12:30 pm