The Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy has opportunity for part-time Sessional appointment. We are accepting applications for the following course:

Botany for Teaching

EDCP 456 951 (Lecture-Laboratory) online
Credits: 3

Location: Vancouver

Term 2 (Jul 13, 2020 to Jul 31, 2020)
Monday to Friday 8:00 a.m. to 10:00 a.m. Neville Scarfe 1204 or online

Applicants must have a minimum of a recognized master's degree preferably in science education with a focus on ethnobotany, a Bachelor of Education degree with a specialization in secondary biology, and an undergraduate degree in plant science. Recent teaching experience with secondary and post secondary science learners and expertise in biology, environmental education, and education initiatives with First Nations communities combined with expertise enacting the BC curriculum with a focus on First People’s Principles of Learning are required for this position. The applicant must have experience with the BC K-12 school system’s structure and services and with the various stakeholder groups and authorities involved in the provision of education in British Columbia. Experience teaching in International Baccalaureate settings is an asset. Duties include teaching online, holding regular office hours, marking assignments, reporting grades, attending subject area meetings as well as follow-up appointments, where applicable.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current resume or CV are submitted to
