The Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy has opportunity for part-time Sessional appointment. We are accepting applications for the following course:

Research Methodology in Education

EDUC 500 61A (Seminar) online

Credits: 3

Location: Online

Term 1 (September 12, 2020 to December 12, 2020)

The West Kootenay Practitioner Inquiry and Place-Conscious Pedagogies M.Ed. cohort serves rural educators from across British Columbia (including both time zones). Applicants must have a recognized PhD degree with relevant teaching and academic expertise for this graduate course. Applicants should have experience in the K–12 and post-secondary education systems. Applicants should be familiar with related systems’ structures and services, with the various stakeholder groups and with authorities involved in the provision of education in British Columbia. Duties include teaching, holding regular office hours, marking assignments, reporting grades, consulting and planning with the Cohort Coordinator, as well as follow-up appointments, where applicable.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current resume or CV are submitted to

Dr. Penney Clark

or by email at penney.clark@ubc.ca

Deadline is July 10, 2020.
Due to the number of applications we receive, we are unable to confirm receipt of submissions over the phone or through the mail, nor can we provide the status of applicants except to those who are selected for an interview.

Also, due to scheduling and workload changes and plans within the Department, deadlines for applications may change and new job postings may be uploaded. We will try to indicate these changes but it is the responsibility of potential applicants to check the website periodically for changes.
