The Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy has opportunity for part-time Sessional appointment. We are accepting applications for the following course:

Elementary Science Methods
EDCP 349 105 (Lecture-Laboratory) online
Credits: 2
Location: Vancouver

Winter Term 2 (Jan 4, 2021 to Feb 12 2021)
Wednesday 4:00 p.m. to 7:00 p.m. online/synchronous or asynchronous

Applicants must have a minimum of a recognized graduate degree in science/science education and a Bachelor of Education degree with a specialization in teaching French in elementary schools. An undergraduate degree in science is preferred. Recent teaching experience with elementary learners with expertise in teaching French and enacting the BC curriculum with a focus on First People’s Principles of Learning are required for this position. The applicant will have experience with the BC K–12 school system’s structure and services and with the various stakeholder groups and authorities involved in the provision of education in British Columbia. Experience teaching science in informal settings is an asset. Duties include teaching online, holding office hours, marking assignments, reporting grades, attending subject area meetings as well as follow-up appointments, where applicable.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current resume or CV are submitted to
