Teacher Education Office

Attention Instructional Leaders
Adjunct Teaching Professor – Secondary Home Economics Education
Faculty of Education – University of British Columbia

The Teacher Education Office and the Department of Curriculum & Pedagogy (EDCP) at UBC invites applications from teacher educators for a twelve-month part-time (60%) seconded position commencing in September 2021 with the possibility of renewal for up to two additional years. The successful candidate will work with secondary teacher candidates in the home economics cohort, both instructing and supervising on practicum.

The Department of Curriculum & Pedagogy (EDCP) is committed to advancing research into curriculum and pedagogy in a variety of contexts and across the lifespan. Our mission is to provide local, national, and international leadership in discipline-specific and interdisciplinary approaches to teaching and learning. Our research supports commitments to the study of curriculum and pedagogy in school, post-secondary, community, and informal learning contexts.

The preferred applicant will have an earned Masters degree in Home Economics Education (or a related field) and experience teaching Home Economics Education in grade 7-12 classrooms. The successful candidate will be familiar with the BC education context, have experience with inquiry-based teaching and facilitating collaborative food, textiles and/or family related curriculum inquiry, and be committed to bringing diverse critical perspectives to home economics education. The workload will include instruction in various courses taught in the teacher education program, as well as supervision of teacher candidates on various practica.

UBC provides orientation and support for instructors who are new to teaching at the university level. Practicum placements will be in secondary schools throughout the Lower Mainland and/or Fraser Valley. Courses are taught at the UBC Point Grey campus.

Application packages should contain: a current CV, a cover letter (one page maximum), a summary of teaching experience, teaching evaluation(s) if available, and e-mail addresses/phone numbers of three referees.

Deadline for applications May 21, 2021.
