THE ORANGE / SHIRT PROJECT

Acts of Remembrance, Respect and Reconciling

All Teacher Candidates and FoE Faculty and Staff are invited to participate in creating orange shirts to commemorate each of the Indigenous children who lost their lives at Indian Residential Schools. We also welcome participation by alumni and UBC community. The collected contributions will be installed in the Scarfe Building as an ongoing act of remembrance and reconciling.

Contribute by making a tiny orange sweater

Join us in a knitting or crocheting workshop, offered by Dr. Lorrie Miller, Dr. Kerry Renwick, Dr. Shannon Leddy and Heather Clark.

Knit, crochet, sew - at every skill level

Scarfe 1107 | 1:00 – 3:00 p.m.
October 21, October 28, and November 4
* more workshops TBA

New and seasoned knitters and crochet enthusiasts are all welcome. Patterns, directions and materials will be available. Yet, we welcome additional donations. Donations of materials or completed shirts can be dropped off Monday – Friday 8:30-4:30pm at: Teacher Education Office | 103 - 2125 Main Mall, Neville Scarfe Building.

For more information contact | Dr. Lorrie Miller
lorrie.miller@ubc.ca

edcp.educ.ubc.ca