

11th Indigenous Math Symposium - Virtual

Sustaining Resilient Mathematical Communities for Well-Being

© UBC Brand & Marketing | Reconciliation Pole, 2017

May 12 & May 19, 2022 Virtual

Session 1 | Thursday May 12, 3:30-4:45 PT

Mathematical Communities for Well-Being: Métis scholar, mathematics educator and University of Alberta Vice-Provost (Indigenous Programming and Research) Dr. Florence Glanfield will share her experiences of building communities across diverse contexts.

Session 2 | Thursday May 19, 3:30-4:45 PT

Igniting the Sparkle Circle Sharing: Teaching mathematics with Indigenous perspectives, practices, and pedagogies: What are we learning?

► Register | tinyurl.com/IMS-11-2022

* Registration opens April 4, 2022 | $10 + GST covers both sessions, no refunds, limited free registration for students