

Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy

The Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy has an opportunity for a part-time Sessional Lecturer. We are accepting applications for the following course:

Music - Secondary: Inquiry Seminar II: EDUC 451B 309

Location: Vancouver

Winter Term 2 (January 3, 2023 to February 17, 2022)

Wednesdays	9:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m.	Scarfe 1317
Thursdays	2:00 p.m. to 5:00 p.m.

Applicants must have a minimum of a recognized master's degree, preferably in education, recent teaching experience with learners in the relevant age group, and academic expertise in the undergraduate course identified above. They should be familiar with the new BC curriculum and have experience with the BC K–12 school system's structure and services and with the various stakeholder groups, and with authorities involved in the provision of education in British Columbia. Duties include teaching, holding regular office hours, marking assignments, reporting grades, attending subject area meetings as well as follow-up appointments, where applicable.

Specific expertise in guiding teacher inquiry around different themes, particular curriculum emphases, or educational issues is required, including knowledge of and experience in fostering the learning of music via unit planning for music classes in K-12 schools as a particular area of educational study. (To be considered, applicants must hold a teaching certificate.)

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current CV are submitted to

Dr. Sandra Scott, Deputy Head
University of British Columbia
