

Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy
June 7, 2022

The Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy has opportunity for a part-time Sessional Instructor appointment available for Winter Term 1. We are accepting applications for the following course:

Visual Arts for Classroom Practice: Three Dimensional Practices & Processes
EDCP 403 (3cr)

Location: Vancouver

Winter Term 1 (Sep 06, 2022 to Dec 14, 2022)
Monday, 4:30pm to 8:30 pm

Applicants must have a minimum of a recognized master's degree preferably in Art Education, Visual Arts, 3D Studio Arts showing solid knowledge and practice of ceramic arts, and with relevant recent teaching and academic expertise in the undergraduate course identified above. As a senior-level course, it is designed to build upon students' knowledge and skills in ceramic arts, design, or other visual art areas. Applicants will be familiar with current artists working in ceramics and the sculptural form, knowledge about contemporary ceramic art and three-dimensional practices, historical foundations for ceramic practices, and understanding the ecological impacts of practices. UBC/EDCP students in the doctoral program will have achieved candidacy. They should be familiar with the new BC curriculum and have experience with the BC K-12 school system's structure and services and with the various stakeholder groups, and with authorities involved in the provision of education in British Columbia. Recent relevant experience teaching in both online/virtual and in person settings and enacting the BC curriculum with a focus on First People's Principles of Learning, Place, with knowledge of and commitment to eco-justice, environmental ethics, and cultural diversity are required for this position. Duties include teaching in person on the Vancouver campus, with the experience and required skills to transition to online if required, holding regular office hours, marking assignments, reporting grades, attending subject area meetings as well as follow-up appointments, where applicable.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however, Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current resume or CV are submitted to

Dr. Sandra Scott
University of British Columbia
Faculty of Education
Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy

or by email at sandra.scott@ubc.ca

2125 Main Mall
Vancouver, BC V6T 1Z4

Deadline is June 24, 2022.

Due to the number of applications that we receive, we are unable to confirm receipt of submissions over the phone or through the mail, nor can we provide the status of applicants except to those who are selected for an interview.

Also, due to scheduling and workload changes and plans within the Department, deadlines for applications may change and new job postings may be uploaded. We will try to indicate these changes but it is the responsibility of potential applicants to check the website periodically for changes.