The Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy has opportunity for a part-time Sessional Lecturer. We are accepting applications for the following course:

Mathematics Education: Origins and Issues

This graduate seminar explores contemporary issues and research in mathematics education.

EDCP 550 032 (Seminar)

This course is not eligible for Credit/D/Fail grading.

Location: Vancouver

Term 2 (Jan 09, 2023 to Apr 13, 2023)

Mode of Delivery: In-Person

Requires In-Person Attendance: Yes

Day	Start Time	End Time	Building	Room
Wed	16:30	19:30	Neville Scarfe	1214

Applicants must have a recognized doctoral degree with relevant teaching and academic expertise for this graduate course. Applicants should have:

- experience in the K–12 and post-secondary education systems,
- experience with research in mathematics education at any or all of levels including elementary, secondary school and/or post-secondary.

Duties include teaching, holding regular office hours, marking assignments, reporting grades, planning with the EDCP math area coordinator, as well as follow-up appointments, where applicable.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current resume or CV are to be submitted to
