

Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy
July 20, 2022

The Department of Curriculum and Pedagogy has opportunity for a part-time Sessional Lecturer. We are accepting applications for the following course:

Inquiry Seminar I - EDUC 450B S21 (Seminar)

Winter Term 1 (Sep 06, 2022 to Dec 16, 2022)      Mode of Delivery: In-Person

Day	Start Time	End Time	Building	Room
Thursday	2:00 PM	5:00 PM	Neville Scarfe	1021

The Inquiry seminars are designed to engage teacher candidates in inquiry about teaching, synthesize experiences, and appreciate the importance of research in curriculum, teaching, and learning. The Inquiry 1 (S21) is an Inquiry Seminar for Social Studies specialists.

Applicants must have a minimum of a recognized master's degree preferably in social studies or teacher education, recent teaching experience with learners in secondary classrooms, and academic expertise in teacher inquiry. The applicant should be familiar with the new BC curriculum and have experience with the BC K–12 school system's structure and services and with the various stakeholder groups, and with authorities involved in the provision of education in British Columbia. Duties include teaching, holding regular office hours, marking assignments, reporting grades, attending subject area meetings as well as follow-up appointments, where applicable.

Equity and diversity are essential to academic excellence. An open and diverse community fosters the inclusion of voices that have been underrepresented or discouraged. We encourage applications from members of groups that have been marginalized on any grounds enumerated under the B.C. Human Rights Code, including sex, sexual orientation, gender identity or expression, racialization, disability, political belief, religion, marital or family status, age, and/or status as a First Nation, Metis, Inuit, or Indigenous person.

All qualified candidates are encouraged to apply; however Canadians and permanent residents will be given priority.

Letters of application along with a current resume or CV are to be submitted to
